THE DEEP FREEZE MICE HANG ON CONSTANCE LET ME HEAR THE NEWS (Cordelia Records — Erica 004)

Es ist kaum zu glauben: Da arbeitet in der Deep Freeze Mice, bestehend aus Alan Jenkins — Gesang und Gitarre, Jon Trubee — Gesang und Tasten, Michael Bunnage — Bass und Pete Gregory — Schlagzeug, seit 1979 ohne kommerziellen Erfolg an einer mittels rote Anhängerschaft in Athen), veröffentlichen in diese Zeit fünf LPs und ein Doppelalbum. Ende ihrer Kreativität und ihres Humors abzusehen. Im Gegenteil: in jeder Stadt-Single-Kopie, die es (gepfegte Musik integriert, ist sie stets neue, ständig weiterentwickelte zu verteilen. Der Vo mregul sche Humor der Mice sinfatset sich schon in den Erläuterungen zu ihren Platten, wie dem beiliegenden Cover der neuen LP, angeblich ein reprä- sentativer Ausschnitt in Originalgröße aus dem Leben des Künstlers. Regal, der darauf es a zusätzt der Zukunft darstellt, in der ds Straßenbild von Dinosaurier reduziert sein wird. Nach den Formeln von Regales Theorie ist das Ende der Menschheit nur noch eine Frage von Jahren. Wenn sie sich nicht vorher durch Selbstmord ausrotten, was zu interessanten Situationen führen würde. Yrwel Ba Jerry Kohn

Die schönsten Stücke sind das Instrumental „Number Five", „Ja li Sele?", „Neuron Music" das von den Entmischungen erzählt, die Otis Redding erlebem mußte, als er im Himmel ankam. „Reading an Agatha Christie" und „What More Can I Do", ihre erste Coverversion (von den Zombees). In einer Zeit, in der man nach 8,47 Minuten angespielen übe den Kauf einer Platte entscheidet, werden es die Deep Freeze Mice auch weiterhin nicht leicht haben. Wer etwas mehr Geduld hat wird feststellen, daß ihre Musik ihn/sie sehr lange begleiten kann, alle anderen werden auf den Raritätenbörsen der 90er Jahre für ihre Ignoranz teuer bezahlen müssen.

VARIOUS ARTISTS 'Obscure Independent Classics: Volume I' (Cordelia ERICAT 003)★★★★

SURPRISINGLY, DESPITE its ominous title 'Obscure Independent Classics' boasts a quite formidable genius quotient, making it very nearly an essential purchase. This is mainly down to the bewildering talents of all The Kamikaze Sex Pilots save for The Disco Zombees, both of whom ooze (or rather oozed, the Zombees being no more) a quirky enthusiasm and an earthy, oddly pleasing charm on their respective tracks, lending the album as a whole a certain 'lo-fi' quality – a background...

Step John Trubee for gratuitous "Telephone Conversation" (on which the buffoon seriously upsets a complete stranger and calls it "art"), and instead lap up the music ramblings of Zoogz Rift (and His Amazing Shitheads (crazy), The Big Goats (unsettling), The Deep Freeze Mice (twisted/psychedelic) and The Fire Hydrant Men (simply yummy!).

ZOOGZ RIFT - "Amputees In Limbo" LP

Imagine mixing FRANK ZAPPA, CAPT. BEEFHEART, TESCO VEE, EUGENE CHADBOURNE, DOC DART, and SACCHARINE TRUST in one demented pot and his musician buddies. Throw in one with horns, various percussion and taps, etc. Original and weird enough to be recommended. (KS) (RifuSnoot, 19719 Victory Blvd., #16, Reseda, CA 91335)

Hang On Constance Let Me Hear The News (Cordelia)

Many would travel to America to catch REM, The Dream Syndicate, or any number of '60s styled fusionists, but the real meat is somewhere on a chopping block just off the M1 at Leicester. Deep Freeze Mice have released five excellent albums.

'Constance' is no letdown. A mighty powerful indie sound that lifts into your senses restoring the feeling of ... (cont page 96)
